EPHRATA COMMUNITY CHURCH

FAQS

Where is ECC currently involved?

Bangladesh Guatemala Guyana Haiti
 India Jamaica Kenya Thailand

How much does it cost to go on an ECC trip, and can I raise support?

Prices vary by trip location, ranging anywhere from $800 to $3000. You may raise support for the trip and will receive information from the leader during a trip meeting.

Grants are available for first-time trips. Individuals seeking a grant should be members or regular attendees of ECC. Applications are required and can be found at the Information Center.

What skills do I need to go on a mission trip?

Many skills are helpful for short-term missions. Trade work, evangelism, teaching, and hospitality are just a few that are needed for many of the trips. Mostly, you will need to be a good team player, responsive to leadership, and have the ability to be flexible in a cross-cultural environment.

ECC MISSIONS seeks to take the gospel to unreached people both locally and globally and to see communities transformed by Christ.

It is a large vision. And it is a call that is extended to each of us. Here are some steps to getting involved.

1 PRAY. Spend some time in prayer for the various places that ECC is currently ministering. Ask God to direct your heart to the people and place He would like you to go.

2 APPLY. Get an application from the Information Center and submit it for the trip you are considering. Contact the person leading the trip with any specific questions.

3 PREPARE. Begin making plans early to allow you the freedom to participate when leaders are ready to assemble the teams (i.e. request time off work, begin saving money or gathering financial support). Then, meet with your team for training and prayer times leading up the trip and begin to identify the specific ways in which you can serve.
